Danielle M. Johnson is an associate in the firm's Family Law Department, handling a wide range of issues, including: dissolution, property characterization and division, child custody and visitation, child and spousal support, and complex, high-asset matters. She is a member of the State Bar of California, and the San Mateo County and Santa Clara County Bar Associations.

Ms. Johnson graduated from Santa Clara University School of Law in May 2010. During law school, Ms. Johnson was a member of the Santa Clara University Law Review, and in the Fall 2009, published an article on same-sex divorce jurisdiction. She earned the CALI Excellence for the Future award in Legal Research & Writing in Spring 2008 and in Legislation in Fall 2009. She earned the Witkin Award for Academic Excellence in Legal Profession in Fall 2009. She won the award for Best Written Brief in Appellate Advocacy in Summer 2008, and was a member of the Dean's List all three years of law school.

Prior to joining Flicker, Kerin, Kruger & Bissada LLP as an associate, Ms. Johnson worked as a law clerk at the firm during her first year of law school. In the summer of 2009, she was a legal intern for the Honorable Socrates P. Manoukian in the criminal division of Santa Clara County Superior Court. Ms. Johnson was a paralegal for two years prior to attending law school. Ms. Johnson earned her B.S. in Psychology from Santa Clara University in 2005. She enjoys reading, traveling, politics, tennis, and is working on her golf game.
