Marisa C. Dane is an associate in the firm's Family Law Department. Ms. Dane handles a wide variety of cases, bringing her tenacity and knowledge to each matter, including: dissolution, legal separation, property characterization and division, child custody and visitation, pre-marital agreements, child and spousal support, paternity matters, domestic partnerships, and complex, high-asset matters. Ms. Dane has recent experience with cases involving valuation of business and partnership interests, goodwill, and stock options.

Ms. Dane is a member of the State Bar of California Bar Association, as well as the American Bar Association, San Mateo County Bar Association and the Santa Clara County Bar Association. Ms. Dane earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of San Francisco School of Law in May 2008. She also graduated as a member of the McAuliffe Honor Society. While in law school, Ms. Dane was a member of the University of San Francisco Law Review and published her comment on real estate valuation in the marital dissolution context in the fall of 2007. She received a CALI Award for Excellence in Family Law in spring 2007 and an award for Best Brief for Moot Court in spring 2006.

Ms. Dane volunteers her time by handling pro bono cases through the Legal Aid Society's Domestic Violence Collaborative.

Prior to joining Flicker, Kerin, Kruger & Bissada LLP as an associate, Ms. Dane spent the summers after her first and second years of law school with the firm as a law clerk.

Ms. Dane earned her B.A. in History from the University of California, Berkeley with high honors.
