Tamarin Adair is an associate in the firm's Family Law Department. Ms. Adair successfully handles a broad array of matters including: dissolution, legal separation, property characterization and division, child custody and visitation, pre-marital agreements, child and spousal support, paternity matters, domestic partnerships, and complex, high-asset matters. Ms. Adair works closely with clients to gain an in-depth understanding of the nuances of their cases and to create a personal, efficient and effective strategy for protecting and advancing their interests.

Ms. Adair serves as an Early Neutral Evaluator for the Santa Clara County Superior Court in helping unrepresented parties resolve their marital disputes. Ms. Adair is also a Court Appointed Special Advocate for foster children.

Ms. Adair is a member of the State Bar of California, as well as the Palo Alto Area, San Mateo County and Santa Clara County Bar Associations. Ms. Adair is currently on the Diversity Committee of the San Mateo County Bar Association. In the past, she has served as the secretary and treasurer of the Women Lawyers' Section and has been a Barristers board member. Ms. Adair has numerous and on-going pro bono projects including: the Legal Aid Society's Domestic Violence Collaborative and the Shelter Network Legal Clinics.

Ms. Adair graduated from the University of California, Hastings College of Law, earning her J.D. in May 2006. In law school, Ms. Adair developed and refined her litigation skills and won the award for the Best Oral Argument in the Moot Court Competition.

During law school, Ms. Adair worked as a legal intern in the San Francisco Unified School District and in the San Francisco City Attorney's Office on the litigation team. She also clerked for Commissioner Marjorie A. Slabach in the San Francisco Unified Family Court. In this position, Ms. Adair solidified her desire to concentrate her practice in family law as she worked on cases involving divorce, domestic violence, dependency, child custody, as well as child and spousal support cases.

Ms. Adair received her Bachelor of Arts in International Politics from Brigham Young University. She was a member of the Phi Etta Sigma Honor Society and studied abroad in Israel, Jordan and Egypt. After graduation, Ms. Adair taught English in Taiwan before going to law school. She has travelled to all seven continents and enjoys scuba diving, hiking, reading and spending time with her family.
